Free Parking is available in the Parking Building just across Oxmoor Road from the Main Building. There is a place reserved for you just inside the door.

Valet Parking—On Sunday mornings, valet parking is available for those who need it. Look for the parking attendants between the Main Building and the North Building.

Worship Services—Plan to arrive a few minutes early in order to park and find your way to the Sanctuary or Chapel worship services. Greeters and ushers will help you find a seat.

Sunday School—Classes are available for every age level. Each class offers ways for people to connect with God and with each other. The Bible is the textbook. Teachers use various methods to help participants explore the truth of God's Word.

Welcome Centers—Hosts can help you and every family member find the right class for your age level and interest.

Dress—You will see a variety of dress styles on Sunday mornings. "Business casual" might describe what most adults will wear.

Childcare—During the worship services, childcare is available for babies and younger children. The Preschool Welcome Desk is in the East Wing of the Main Building on the first floor.
